SERIAL No. 6

Read:-

Correspondence ending with docket No.91 dated the 16th August 1901 from the Dy. Commr, Chitaldrug District, regarding the sale of the windows proposed to be supplied by the Superintendents of the Bangalore and Mysore Jails to the residents of Davangere whose houses were ill ventilated, on payment of the cost price of the windows, in 1899

Orderthereon. N 3648-57 / 2180/734 8.11.01

During November and December 1899 when plague prevailed in a virulent form at Davangere and the houses there were ill ventilated the Plague Commr, at the instance of the Senior Surgeon, applied to Government for the issue of orders to the Jails at Bangalore and Mysore to manufacture and supply the Asstt. Commr. at ~~Dav~~ Davangere 1000 windows each measuring 3'×2' with iron bars one-third inch thick for the use of the inhabitants of that place, some of the leading merchants having guaranteed payment for the same.

2. Accordingly 720 windows at an aggregate cost of Rs.2708-11- were prepared and forwarded to Davangere but the inhabitants were backward in purchasing them and none of the windows were therefore sold. The prospect of realizing by sale at Davangere ~~by public auction~~ by public auction the outlay incurred in the manufacture and transport of these windows to Davangere not being very hopefulthe Deputy Commr., Chitaldrug District, is requested to send back the 720 windows ~~supplied for sale to the residents at Davangere~~, to the Deputy Commr., Bangalore Distt., who will be requested to make proper arrangements for ~~the~~ their sale ~~of windows~~ by public auction at the city, in such instalments as he may consider advantageous, and report the result for the information of Govt.

3. The Supdtt. of the Mysore Jail ia also requested to sell by public auction, after wide publicity the windows left with himviz, 113, and credit the sale proceeds to the Distt Treasury.

4. The Supdtts. of the Bangalore and Mysore Jails will adjust, by book transfer, the cost of the 400 and 433 windows respectively supplied by them.
